

September 2018 New Nonfiction

Underlined titles
also available
on audio.

Killing the SS: The Hunt for the Worst War Criminals in History by Bill O'Reilly

Traces the daring of Nazi hunters after World War II, revealing the contributions of legal experts, intelligence agents and concentration-camp survivors in tracking down and capturing high-profile Nazis.

Mr. Trump's Wild Ride: The Thrills, Chills, Screams, and Occasional Blackouts of his Extraordinary First Year in Office by Major Garrett

The CBS News chief White House correspondent chronicles the Trump administration's first year, detailing the triumphs, tragedies and potential fallout of key events in 2017.

We Fed an Island: The True Story of Rebuilding Puerto Rico, One Meal at a Time by José Andrés

The founder of World Central Kitchen describes how his culinary network challenged broken government systems while feeding tens of thousands of Puerto Ricans who lost their homes and livelihoods to Hurricane Maria.

Healing the Soul of a Woman: How to Overcome Your Emotional Wounds by Joyce Meyer

A renowned Bible teacher and #1 New York Times best-selling author draws on her own personal history of abuse to counsel women on how to heal emotional wounds and find joy in the redeeming love of Christ.

In Pieces by Sally Field

The Academy Award-winning actress shares insights into her difficult childhood, the artistic pursuits that helped her find her voice and the powerful emotional legacy that shaped her journey as a daughter and mother.

Live Long and...: What I Learned Along the Way by William Shatner

The Star Trek legend and New York Times best-selling author reflects on his career and the health scare that informed and reinforced his beliefs about living a good life, sharing engaging stories about his childhood, personal setbacks and iconic successes.

How Not to Get Shot: And Other Advice from White People by D. L. Hughley

Offers a humorous guide intended to help African Americans keep themselves from being shot by the police, consisting of the "helpful" advice from white people that crops up after police shootings, as interpreted by the author

This is the Day: Reclaim Your Dream, Ignite Your Passion, Live Your Purpose by Tim Tebow

The NFL star, media icon and best-selling author of Shaken shares motivational advice on how readers can tap their inner courage and overcome fear-based obstacles in order to pursue their dreams.

One Person, No Vote: How Voter Suppression is Destroying our Democracy by Carol Anderson

The New York Times best-selling author of White Rage presents a timely history of voter suppression that exposes America's insidious history of policies that have blocked African-American voting participation, placing particular focus on the Supreme Court's 2013 Shelby ruling.

Whiskey in a Teacup: What Growing Up in the South Taught Me About Life, Love, and Baking Biscuits

by Reese Witherspoon

An Academy Award-winning actress, producer and entrepreneur invites readers into her world, where she infuses the southern style, parties and traditions she loves with contemporary flair and charm.

September 2018 New Fiction

Underlined titles
also available
on audio.

Promised Land by Martin Fletcher

The tumultuous early years of the young Jewish state are brought to vivid life through the eyes of two German Jewish brothers. Arie survived the Holocaust in Europe. Peter, one year older, was sent to America before the war began. They find each other again in Israel, learning everyone else in their family has been murdered. Peter becomes a top Mossad agent, deeply involved in many of the key spy adventures of the era. Arie becomes a scheming businessman, among the richest men in Israel: one brother is building the state, the other protecting it. But they have fallen in love with the same woman, a Jewish refugee from Egypt. The brothers' jealousies and intrigues are mirrored by the young nation's very own struggles to survive.

Little Comfort by Edwin Hill

Harvard librarian Hester Thursby must track down charismatic—and deadly—con man Sam Blaine before he bilks another widow out of her life savings.

Without Fear by David Hunt

A team of CIA contractors chase down a tactical nuclear weapon discovered by the Taliban in Kandahar while Russian Spetsnaz and Israeli Mossad agents trigger chaos and confusion.

Blackout: An Ari Thor Thriller by Ragnar Jónasson

After a man is killed in Northern Iceland, a young reporter leaves Reykjavik to investigate on her own, not realizing that an innocent life hangs in the balance, just as Ari Thor Arason and the rest of the police launch their own search.

The Other Woman by Sandie Jones

A blissful romance between Adam and Emily is challenged by Adam's manipulative mother, who resorts to dire measures to keep all other women out of her son's life.

Presidio by Randy Kennedy

Two brothers in the 1970s Texas panhandle steal a car to search for one's wife who ran off with their tiny amount of money and accidentally kidnap a Mennonite girl who was asleep in the backseat.

Mobile Public Library

700 Government St.
Mobile, Alabama 36602 | 251-208-7902
www.mobilepubliclibrary.org