

June 2020 New Non-Fiction

Countdown 1945 : The Extraordinary Story of the Atomic Bomb and the 116 Days That Changed the World by Chris Wallace

A Fox News Sunday anchor and a Pulitzer Prize-winning AP investigative journalist present a behind-the-scenes account of the secret meetings, global events, leadership decisions and civilian realities that led to the Hiroshima bombing.

Also available in audio

Dewey Defeats Truman : The 1948 Election and the Battle for America's Soul by A. J. Baime

A look at the 1948 election pitting incumbent president Harry Truman against New York governor Thomas Dewey, which took place against momentous international events including the emerging Cold War.

Our Time is Now : Power, Purpose, and the Fight for a Fair America by Stacey Abrams

"Voter suppression has plagued America since its inception, and so has the issue of identity—who is really American and what that means. When tied together, as they are in our modern politics, citizens are harmed in overt, subtle, and even personal ways. Stacey Abrams experienced the effects firsthand, running one of the most unconventional races in modern politics as the Democratic nominee for the governorship in Georgia and the first black woman major party nominee in American history.

Night of the Assassins : The Untold Story of Hitler's Plot to Kill FDR, Churchill, and Stalin by Howard Blum

The Edgar Award-winning author of American Lightning documents the true story of how a Secret Service agent and his unlikely Soviet partner foiled a Nazi plot to assassinate Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin during the 1943 Tehran conference.

Perfectly Wounded : A Memoir About What Happens After a Miracle by Douglas Michael Day

A retired U.S. Navy SEAL discusses his work as a Special Operation Command Wounded Warrior Advocate and the founder of Warrior Tribe, the non-profit organization he founded to provide help for veterans and trauma survivors.

Which Country Has the World's Best Health Care? by Ezekiel Emanuel

A prominent doctor and bioethicist sets out to find the world's best country for healthcare, including Taiwan, Germany, Australia and Switzerland, and how the most effective health providers handle the challenges of providing good care.

What You Need to Know About Voting--and Why by Kim Wehle

A thorough examination of the specifics of voting in the U.S. Constitutional scholar and law professor Wehle has designed this book as a guide for those seeking greater insight into a variety of related topics, including the slippery concept of the right to vote, the background basics of voting, and the structural barriers to voting.

Stealing Our Democracy : How the Political Assassination of a Governor Threatens Our Nation by Don Siegelman

Former Alabama Governor Don Siegelman was the most successful and promising politician in modern Alabama history, that is until Siegelman's enemies dragged him into court with biased prosecutors and a corrupt judge. Rather than meet his potential, Governor Siegelman was sentenced to eighty-eight months, locked away as a political prisoner. In Stealing Our Democracy, Siegelman tells his side of the story, a story with damning implications for anyone who believes that democracy and the criminal justice system cannot be exploited for political gain.

June 2020 New Non-fiction

The 300 : The Inside Story of the Missile Defenders Guarding America Against Nuclear Attack by Daniel Wasserbly

Describes the establishment of the 100th Missile Defense Brigade, an operating unit at Fort Greely in Alaska and Schriever Air Force Base in Colorado Springs, tasked with being prepared to destroy an inflight ballistic missile.

The Book of Rosy : A Mother's Story of Separation at the Border by Rosayra Pablo Cruz

"From a mother whose children were taken from her at the U.S. border by the American government in 2018 and another mother who helped reunite the family, a crucial, searing story about the immigration odyssey, family separation and reunification, and the power of individuals to band together to overcome even the most cruel and unjust circumstances"

The Demagogue's Playbook : The Battle for American Democracy from the Founders to Trump by Eric A. Posner

"Cuts through the hyperbole and hysteria that often distorts assessments of our republic, particularly at this time." - Alan Taylor, winner of the 2014 Pulitzer Prize for History What-and who-is a demagogue? How did America's Founders envision the presidency? What should a constitutional democracy look like-and how can it be fixed when it appears to be broken? Something is definitely wrong with Donald Trump's presidency, but what exactly?

Exercise of Power : America and the Post-Cold War World by Robert Michael Gates

The former Secretary of Defense and author of the best-selling Duty offers a candid, sweeping examination of American executive powers and how they have been exercised with positive and negative results by American Presidents throughout the post-Cold War era.

Fast, feast, repeat : the comprehensive guide to delay, don't deny® intermittent fasting--including the 28-day fast start by Gin Stephens

In this guide to moving toward an intermittent fasting (IF) lifestyle, the author shares her IF protocol—the culmination of three years of following the latest IF and autophagy research out of top universities as well as coaching tens of thousands of people via her online communities. Original. 50,000 first printing. Illustrations.

A Furious Sky : The Five-Hundred-Year History of America's Hurricanes by Eric Jay Dolin

The best-selling author of Leviathan urges readers to prepare for the probable consequences of incrementally devastating future hurricanes, in a 500-year chronicle of the formidable impact of hurricanes on American history prior to global climate change. Illustrations.

The Hardest Job in the World : The American Presidency by John Dickerson

The award-winning 60 Minutes correspondent and former anchor of Face the Nation explains how the branches of government differ from founder intentions and how presidential leadership has become more about campaigns and unrealistic expectations than job suitability. Illustrations.

Mobile Public Library

700 Government St.
Mobile, Alabama 36602 | 251-545-3366
mobilepubliclibrary.org